

[brides color school]

sage & rose Inject some old-style romance into an afternoon celebration with this soft vintage pairing

Go retro-glam in a taffeta frock with a gathered waist and a pleated bodice; $260, Badgley Mischka Bridesmaids. Earrings, $42, Givenchy. Bangles, $340 for a set of three, Miriam Haskell. Shoes, $80, Nina.

Need a manly way to deck the guys in pastels? A gray jacket is dude-friendly and perfect for a powdery palette. Jacket and shirt; both, Brooks Brothers. Silk-satin pin-dot tie, Kleinfeld Manhattan Men.

A dusty rose dress flatters every skin tone—and calls for an antique-y rose bouquet with sweet peas, ranunculus, and olive and rubber-tree leaves; $275, LMD, Lewis Miller Design. Ring, $50, Givenchy.

FASHION

Feminine and flowery, this pink satin clutch echoes the old-world glamour of her sage gown and the raw-edged floral trim at her waist; $125, Sondra Roberts. Bracelets, $95 each, R. J. Graziano.

Get your flower gal garden party-ready in a floaty fantasy featuring a satin bodice, a coral sash, and a lace skirt that's beaded and embroidered with roses; $129, David's Bridal. Sash, $45, Kaya Couture.

The one-shoulder gown is the look du jour. Garb your girls in this tea-length stunner with a silk bodice and chiffon overlay; $350, Ciarla Bride. Earrings, $42, Danielle Stevens Jewelry. Turn to Shopping Guide.

LOG ON

TO BRIDES.COM/FASHION FOR MORE BRIDAL-PARTY LOOKS.