

EVERYDAY

Inside her favorite boutique, Trash & Vaudeville

Jessica Joyce

"My edgy look is influenced by my taste in music and the years I spent hanging out in the East Village [of New York City] as a teenager," says Jessica, whose wardrobe staples include skinny black pants, slouchy boots, and an oxidized cross pendant. "I'd say there's a goth aspect to my style. I try to put together original outfits that represent me, but can work in any situation."

Our Translation: For Jessica's wedding day, we created a look that's totally original. This silk charmeuse gown's asymmetric strap, sexy silhouette, and high slit are daring and unexpected, while the jeweled details create the drama Jessica loves. Her tousled hairstyle, dark eye makeup, and black satin heels help define her as our "maverick bride."
